CATTLE SHOW JUDGES

MAURIZIO CHINCARINI

Single Judge.

A Brown Swiss breed expert since 2006, he has evaluated over 30,000 cows throughout his career across the entire Italian territory. As his career progressed, he became an Inspector and Judge. Well known and highly regarded, he has officiated at numerous shows at various levels throughout Italy, as well as at one international exhibition. He works cooperates regularly with Anarb as a Judge. Raised on the family farm in Malcesine (Verona), on Lake Garda, in 2015 he relocated the herd to the province of Trento, just 35 km from Malcesine, at the foothills of Mount Stivo, in the village of Ronzo-Chienis. The farm operates under a free-stall housing system and is located at an altitude of 1,230 meters above sea level, with approximately 40 hectares of arable land dedicated to forage crops. The herd consists of 80 head of Brown Swiss cattle, about 40 of which are lactating. The average annual milk production is approximately 10,000 kg of milk per head. The farm places strong emphasis on genetic selection, with animals of outstanding interest both from a production and morphological standpoint. Among the many cows noted for their exceptional conformation, special mention goes to Cloe, a cow sired by Nirvana, which claimed the title of Grand Champion at the Verona National Show in 2018.

DANIELE GALBARDI

Substitute Judge.

Born in Zone, a small town overlooking Lake Iseo in the province of Brescia, he obtained a diploma as an agricultural technician at the age of 19. Raised on the family farm, now in its third generation, he has been passionate about the Brown Swiss breed since childhood. The farm, entirely dedicated to the Brown Swiss breed, has operated under a free-stall housing system since 2001 and currently manages around 70 head of cattle, about 40 of which are lactating. The cows achieve an average annual production of approximately 12,500 kg of milk per head. The herd stands out for its outstanding breeding results dating back to the 1970s–1990s and reached its peak success at cattle shows with the following cows: Galby Jackpot Daria, Reserve Grand Champion Cow at the National Show in 2010; Galby Jagli Bionda, Grand Champion Heifer at the National Show in 2013; and Galby Nesta Ivrea, which in 2014 won the most prestigious titles, including National Grand Champion Cow and Best Udder. Daniele began his career as a breed expert in 2008 and became a multi-breed expert in 2014. To date, he has evaluated over 100,000 cows on farms, including Brown Swiss and other major breeds raised in Italy. He currently serves as European Coordinator of Brown Swiss Judges and is a member of the Anarb Expert Advisory Committee. In December 2024, he was officially included on the list of judges eligible to officiate at livestock shows in the United States. He served as Sole Judge at the European Showdown in Italy in 2020. Additionally, he has judged more than one hundred events across Italy, including three National Shows, as well as several major international exhibitions in Peru, France, Switzerland, Spain, England, and Mexico.